

Abstract

Kalapapruek Pattana 2013 Co.,Ltd. is the company that operates the real estate and land sales. The company allocates lands buildings construction. The company also buys lands and enhance lands' improvements such as repairing properties in order to resell them.

After the researcher finished the report of "Procedures and Costs spent in setting up a concert". It found that the concert is held to promote Holland Market. The study of concert that occurs in the opening of the market has received some positive feedbacks well from mentors, other workers and older workers in the organisation. I consider this event to be very successful one as I have had a chance to practice the working skills in Co-operative Education or Co-op field in Kalapapruek Pattana 2013 Co.,Ltd.. I have also experienced working in other places outside the organisation's office. Everyone in the organisation is so kind and helpful. They always advise and teach works for me. I was assigned other kinds of works as well as putting up advertisement on the page website to spread out information about the concert.

Keywords : Real estate, Concert, Costs