

Abstract

N-Connect was established in 2014 as a subsidiary of EP & IT SOLUTION Co., Ltd. Company provide solutions in the area of Network, Server and Storage which brings a variety of work into the company. The company has a website to mediate the order without contacting the company directly. But this website out of date. Therefore, the site cannot continue to maintenances. The team was assigned to develop a website to replace the original site. The development program consists of Microsoft Visual Studio 2015 for website development. Development language is ASP.NET and database management system is SQL Server. So that the site is reliable, easy to use, and it's easy for administrators to update content.

KEYWORD: Electronic Commercials / ASP.NET / Website Development