A true education needs practical application of the chapters for better understanding and qualification of the study of specific courses. For this, I would like to thank Kathmandu College of Management & Siam University for providing me this opportunity to get real time exposure to apply my theoretical concepts in the real world. This kind of work is essential for any management students that give us opportunities to get exposed to practical knowledge and implications, giving real time problem solving situations.

Likewise, I am deeply thankful towards my internship supervisors Mr. Sanjeeb Shrestha, Junior Assistant of Finance & Planning Ms. Gunjan Shree Thapa, Assistant Ms. Shriya Sitaula and Assistant of Reporting Section Mr. Ishan Baidhya for their valuable suggestions and concepts in preparing this report. I would like to sincerely thank them for his proper guidance, suggestions, encouragement and comments to direct me to the right track throughout this report writing despite his busy schedule.

I would also like to forward my gratitude towards NMB Bank Ltd and Finance & Planning Department who guided me towards my internship program. I gratify towards NMB Bank Ltd and all the members of the organization for their kind support.

Lastly, I offer my regards to all of those who supported me in any respect during the completion of the project.
