

Abstract

The objective of booking and check-in data management website for M.M. Alliance is to improve working performance of recording system and statistic reports. This project starts with collecting requirements from employees and project manager. The booking and check-in data management website is developed using Microsoft Visual Studio 2015. This system can give a quick and correct report of booking and checking-in. Manager and employees in booking department are satisfied with the system.

Keywords: Cascading Style Sheets / Bootstrap / Website Development