Abstract

     The issue of learning by yourself from Japanese language books often caused from incorrect pronounce and incomprehensible. It's make the students feel hard and boring. The objective of Computer Assisted Instruction: Basic Japanese Language project is development instruction media to easy access by computers. Computer Assisted Instruction: Basic Japanese Language project consists of a picture, audio and subtitle can make funny learning and more easier use. We're using Adobe Photoshop CS6 to make background, Adobe Flash Professional CS6 to make media and Adobe Audition CS6 to sound recorded. The benefit of this project is a students can easier learning from picture, sounds and subtitle. It's can make students happy learning.

 Keyword: Computer / Computer Assisted Instruction / Japanese Language