

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

During the period of surveying Capital Market and preparing the report, I had gained altruistic assistance from a number of persons including honorable and respectable Supervisor Dr. Vijit Supinit, former Dean of MBA, Siam University. Thankful to the respective personnel of those people because they showed their highest degree of temperament in answering persistent questions. Such if their friendly cooperation and kindness did not even allow me to strive for a single moment for.

I am very much grateful to the personnel who are involved with capital market for giving me the time and various information to complete my thesis paper. specially, I would like to give a great thank to Mr. Rafiqul Islam (manager of Sub valley brokerage house) and other respective persons who have taught me about capital market in Bangladesh with significant, vital, imperative and essential information and given me a friendly environment to learn.

Last of all, all the relent things I have tried my best in order to serve the every objective of this report that have helped me utilizing academic knowledge in terms of practical orientation. However, there might be errors and silly mistakes due to my limited aptitude and time constraint. In this regard, I seek your kind consideration. Finally, I like to express my deepest gratitude to my family members for their love and support, which made it possible to accomplish this work and I would like to dedicate this thesis paper to them.
