The research and the dissertation are finished with the tender care and careful guidance of my supervisor, Professor and I was deeply affected and inspired by his serious scientific attitude, rigorous scholarly research spirit and the work style of keeping on improving. My supervisor, Professor always gives me the careful guidance and unremitting support from the selection of the subject to the final completion of the project. Teacher Chang gives me the careful guidance on my study but also gives me excellent care in thought and livelihood. Sincere appreciation and high respect are extended to teacher Chang.

I would like to thank the students of Siam University and I cannot overcome the difficulties and doubts one by one without your help and support. With thesis nearly complete, my heart cannot rest. So many respected teachers, classmates, friends have offered the wordless help to me from the beginning of entering into the subject to the successful completion of the thesis. Please accept my heartfelt apology! Last my thanks would go to my parents who bring me up hardly.

Thank you so much!
