

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Time is always inadvertently passing; graduate students two years of study life is nearing the end. In the coming into the community, contact with a new environment before the two-year review is always conducive to future development. Over the past three years, the greatest help and guidance to me is of course my mentor, you are always patient to give me constructive comments and suggestions, revise the manuscript over and over again until complete. In the paper writing, you choose from the topic, document research, questionnaire design, research methods applied to the paper writing process, are carefully guide me to do every step, every detail, it is your high requirements, just let me learn more knowledge and skills, but also learned self-discipline and strict demands on themselves. Here, I want to say to you, teacher, you have worked hard, thank you.

In the whole research and writing process of the thesis, the tutor gave me great encouragement and support. We always meet with the teacher to communicate, this mutual discussion not only stimulated my inspiration and potential, but also let me learn to share with others imperceptibly, knowledge is to continue to share to have greater progress, which is very beneficial to my growth process.

Thanks to my family, you let me experience the selfless and beautiful affection. The growth and joy I have gained are closely related to your silent support, and I will live with gratitude. Thanksgiving growth on the road you predecessors, teachers, friends, students of my concern and support, bearing in mind, brave departure.
