After several months of hard work, my dissertation is about to be completed. I recall the whole process of the paper, the trivial and plain work, every detail, every word and every sentence. I thought that it would be easy for me, but I didn't realize that the process was so arduous. I would like to take this opportunity to express my deep gratitude to those who have helped me.

First of all, I would like to thank my advisor for guiding me seriously; it is thanks to your guidance that I have been able to produce such a high-quality dissertation.

Secondly, I would like to thank all the lecturers for their help when I was studying at Siam University. I thank all the teachers of the college for their dedication. This is their hard work. Now I can successfully complete my studies and create a new chapter in my life.

Thirdly, thank you to my classmates for their company: I had a great time during my MBA study.

Finally, I would like to thank my family for their support. My lovely father and highly respected mother, your love has always been with me – this is my greatest wealth.
